

Hello to each of you!

Early this morning, Thursday, December 16 at 1:33 am (Pacific Time), Mary Rose Creegan peacefully went home to God. Her sister, Mary Enda, and Nuala Briody were with her when she died. Her funeral arrangements are pending, although we know that Mary Rose's body will be cremated and that her funeral will be at St. Paul the Apostle Church.

Let us give thanks to God for the gift of Mary Rose and rejoice that she now enjoys the fullness of life.

Please keep in prayer Enda, her family and friends, that they may experience God's peace and comfort.

If you would like to send a message to Enda, please use her personal email address: srenda@sp-apostle.org

Thank you, Linda W
